

Graduate Town Planner to Town Planner – H Planning Ltd in Old Street, London

Competitive salary plus package/bonus

Are you a recent graduate from an RTPI accredited degree and looking to kick start your career or are you looking for that next challenge in a Consultancy? We are currently seeking an Assistant Planner or Town Planner to join our well established and growing Town Planning Consultancy.

H Planning Ltd is a London focussed Town Planning Consultancy located in Old Steet. We offer a wide variety of Town Planning services and work on a broad range of projects across the residential, mixed-use and commercial sectors.

This is an excellent opportunity for an ambitious Town Planning junior to join our thriving Town Planning Consultancy. You will be required to work on a range of projects and must have the ability to effectively manage your time. Your role will include:

- Writing reports, compiling and reviewing all the documents necessary for pre-applications, planning applications and appeals
- Researching and assisting the Directors on a large number of projects
- Researching sites and assisting in policy reporting and site allocations
- Attending committee meetings, council meetings, client meetings and site visits with team members
- Establishing and maintaining working relationships with other professionals and collaborators
- Supporting the Directors in marketing, client care and business development activities

You must have excellent written and communications skills. You must also have the ability to work with others and independently. You will need to have undertaken an RTPI accredited degree course. We are dedicated for you to progress and will offer training and CPD opportunities. We have experience supporting graduates who are working towards achieving their RTPI Chartered qualification. You will also have the opportunity to attend external industry events outside of work hours.

We are located in a serviced shared office with a gym and a focus on wellness and various other benefits included within their membership that you will have access to, with lots of opportunities for networking with other professionals.
